

We are happy and pleased to accept high-quality books, which are books you would eagerly bring into your own homes. Soiled, moldy, and torn books should not be donated.

Thank you for donating your used books for the RKML Annual Book Sale!

*Please note* We cannot accept donations ahead April 20th, 2024, as we do not have storage space to hold onto books! Here is our updated list of accepted items as you gather & store items to donate this spring:

Accepted Book Items:

- Children's Books
- Fresh Fiction (2020 or newer)
- Young Adult Fiction and Manga

Items to leave at home (or recycle):

- Anything smelly, yellowed, or moldy
- Airport/mass market paperbacks
- Audio cassette tapes, audiobook CDs & VHS tapes
- Board Games
- Encyclopedia sets
- Magazines
- Parenting & What to Expect, Self Help
- Study Guides & reference books and textbooks

Frequently Asked Questions

Where is the book sale?

At the Ruth Keeler Memorial Library Fair on May 11th 10:00am to 3:00 pm.

Is a tax receipt provided for book donations?

Yes, upon request.

Where should I drop off my book donations?

Donations can be brought to the library starting Saturday, April 20th at 10:30 am. Please do not leave donations outside the library.

What methods of payment will be accepted at the sale?

We happily accept cash, check, credit card, and PayPal.

What happens to the books you don't sell at the end of Book Sale?

We are delighted to partner with local, national, and international nonprofits like the Faith Kenya Mission America who can take as many books as they'd like after the book sale.